Inmates restore classic car

HARD lines of the 1973 Classic Monaro glisten with a fresh coat of glossy paint - this car has been nurtured back to life by five inmates at Junee Correctional Centre.

The restored Holden HQ Monaro has been fully stripped, spray painted, reworked and restored by electricians, a spray painter and self-taught motoring enthusiasts. Who are also prisoners.

The car will be sold off with funds raised donated to Wagga and Blacktown PCYCs.
