

Facility: Parklea Correctional Centre
Media: Blacktown Advocate, Sydney
Published Date: 19 August 2015

KINGS LANGLEY

Blacktown PCYC footy players Jayme and Benson (front) and teammates celebrate the facilities at Allen Robertson Reserve.

Spartans get a spruce up

PRISONERS COME TO THE AID OF JUNIORS' CLUBHOUSE

BLACKTOWN PCYC Spartans rugby league players have already found form for next season with an upgrade of facilities at their home ground.

The makeover at Allen Robertson Reserve, Kings Langley, was made possible by the handiwork of inmates at Parklea Correctional Centre.

The ill-equipped canteen kitchen will include wall cupboards, which were due to be installed yesterday.

The amenities block and outdated kitchen. Pictures: IAN SVEGOVIC

Privacy screens were also fitted to the amenities block of the Hawkesworth Pde field.

"When you walked to the canteen to buy something you could see straight into the toilets and it wasn't a good look," Blacktown PCYC rugby league co-ordinator Steve Warwick said. Mr Warwick praised the prison's operators, GEO, for committing to the project.

"They're just an amazing, amazing community group," Mr Warwick said.

GEO is a regular sponsor of the club, which was formed in 2008 and took its name in acknowledgment of its humble facilities.