Life's a canvas at library

THE TALENTED DOCTOR POTTS: The famed image of Doctor John Potts is just one of several new paintings delivered to Junee Library. Painted by inmates of Junee Correctional Centre on a plywood "canvas" provided by the Junee Men's Shed, the works will add colour to the library. Delivering the paintings are councillor Pam Halliburton, Men's Shed members Brian Whitechurch and president George Burgess, correctional centre general manager Andy Walker, council general manager James Davis, librarian Kim Richards and offender services manager Trevor Coles.
