

Facility: Junee Correctional Centre
Media: Daily Advertiser, Wagga Wagga NSW
Published Date: 04 April 2016

Inmates have the right moves

INMATES at the GEO Junee Correctional Centre are knights in shining armour to the Wagga Chess Club after a gallant donation.

Members of the chess club visit inmates every second Sunday to play a few games.

The inmates have shown their appreciation by making and donating two chess boards.

The boards are painted on handmade wooden tables with fantasy designs around each one.

"They are quite fanciful and very well done," Wagga Chess Club captain Martin Alster said.

GEO Junee Correctional Centre offender services manager Trevor Coles said projects such as these give the inmates a sense of normality and to still feel connected to the community.

The tables will be kept at Mates Gully and will be available for public use.

CHECK MATE: Tyler Auld, GEO Junee Correctional Centre activities co-ordinator Mick Perkins and offender services manager Trevor Coles and chess captain Martin Alster.